MIXED BUNCH | WINE100

De Bortoli
 Estate Grown Yarra Valley
 Chardonnay 2010

Tightrope balance of complexity and unerring restraint with primary, crunchy lemon, grapefruit, apple and pear offset by nuances of smoked bacon. The most fault under this label yet; a high-strung frame of minerality and less flesh than a gymnast.

De Bortoli
 Gulf Station Yarra Valley
 Chardonnay 2010

Is there a finer Chardonnay under $20 anywhere in the world? Premium Yarra Valley fruit with years of potential in the cellar, thanks to honed minerality and precision of grapefruit and white peach.

De Bortoli
 Riarret Merricks Grove Vineyard
 Morning Peninsula Pinot
 Noir 2009

It is a great challenge to produce Pinot Noir of lifted rose petal delicacy and subtlety and at the same time a firm, textural tannin backbone. Trust the talented De Bortoli brigade to nail it again.

De Bortoli
 Riarret The Abbey Vineyard
 Yarra Valley Pinot Noir 2010

A pretty, lighter bodied take on Yarra Pinot with an air of spice, cherry kernel and anise over a core of red cherry fruits. The finish is long, vibrant, bright and accented with finely textured tannins.

De Bortoli
 Yarra Valley Estate Grown
 Sauvignon Blanc 2010

One of the standouts of a great lineage of De Bortoli Sauvignon and more deeply mineral and intensely textural than ever. Beautiful aromatics of bright grapefruit blossom; clean-cut lemon carry through the palate.

Ross Hill
 Pinnacle Series Chardonnay 2009

With a restraint and elegance infused by its high altitude credentials, this is a delicate Orange Chardonnay, with a lifted air of grapefruit blossom, white lilies and just-picked white peaches. The palate is subtle and citrus-driven, riding on a fine, cool, lingering minerality.

Brangayne of Orange
 Tristan Cabernet Sauvignon Shiraz
 Merlot 2009

Impressive vitality and youthful promise, a seamlessly assembled blend in an unashamedly medium-bodied guise with fruit captured at the perfect instant to optimise black fruits, pepper and anise.
